

PUT MORE ROAR INTO YOUR COMPANY!

Supercharge the Impact, Confidence and Communication Powers of Your People, in the unique environment of Paradise Wildlife Park.

With Inspirational Speakers
Nicci Roscoe and Michael Dodd >>>

This fun, action-packed, experiential learning opportunity will give your team more than just a great day out.

"Put More Roar Into Your Company" gives you a bespoke programme designed to hit the right spots for your team members while they have a fun, skills-enhancing day with the animals and top international speakers.

Your team members build their skills while interacting with the magnificent animals of Paradise Wildlife Park.

Nicci and Michael will take them through a variety of transformational skills-building exercises and activities designed to take them to a higher level – whatever their starting point.

The benefits will show themselves as soon as your team is back in the workplace - with their ability to impress your clients, your prospects and to grow your bottom line.

You can choose which of the following outcomes you would like your team members to achieve:

- A bigger and more fabulous impact inside and outside your organisation
- The power to use stories to persuade and inspire clients, prospects and colleagues
- Take their confidence to new heights
- Boost creativity, team performance and morale
- Gain a greater understanding of themselves and others
- Identify where and how to take themselves to a higher performance level
