

DUNSTER'S YARN MARKET HOTEL
SHORTLISTED IN THE NATIONAL GROUP TRAVEL AWARDS

The Yarn Market Hotel in Dunster has been listed as a finalist in the 2018 National Group Travel Awards. It is one of seven nominated in the "Best Individual Hotel for Groups in the UK" category.

Antony Brunt, the proprietor of the Yarn Market Hotel, commented:- "We are delighted to be nominated as a finalist in these awards. It's a great reflection on the work that all of the team at the Hotel put in all year round to attract business and then to make sure that our guests, be they groups or individuals enjoy their stay and the delights of Dunster itself, West Somerset and the Exmoor National Park."

Antony is a well-known figure on the Travel Trade Show circuit and has been found promoting the Yarn Market Hotel and the wider attractions of the area across England and Wales. The message has been taken to London, Manchester, venues across southern England and Liverpool amongst other locations and on Tuesday March 20th he will be heading to the NEC Birmingham to spend two days working at the British Travel Trade Show on Wednesday and Thursday. The work and the mileage has clearly paid off as he will return to a full hotel, hosting a four day break for RailTrail holidays, who are visiting heritage railways in the South West including the second day on the West Somerset Railway's Spring Steam Gala on Friday 23rd March.
